REORGANIZED ROSETTA DIVIDE
MINING COMPANY
Notice is hereby given that the regular annual meeting of the Reorganized Rosetta Divide Minning Company will be held on Saturday, the dd day of July, 1921, at 3 o'clock P. M. in the basement under the First National Bank in the State Bank & Frust building in Tonopah, Nye County, Nevada.

The object of the meeting is for the election of a Board of Directors will make the hair wavy, but in other cases it has no effect at all, due to the dark, they might like it in Woodville."

So off to Woodville they trotted, When Mr. Owl heard the terrible noise outside, he ducked under the ciothes and hid, for what was after him he could not think, But after a while, as nothing happened but the noise, Mr. Owl poked out his head, and then got up. But instead of getting out of the man playing on the street and he got side of his bed, as he first started to do, he got out this time on the wrong "I wonder if I could get some young side, which made him very cross.

He ran to the window and threw it up with a bang, and Tom Kitten and Bab Rabbit were sure this time they were to get a mouse or a radish. Each held up his hat and said:

"Pity two poor orphans and give us something." "I'll give you something," said Mr. Owl, for he was cross when he went to the window, but when he saw who it was he was crosser than ever. Mr. Owl did not wait to dress. He flew right out of the window just as he was, in his night cap and slippers, and down he pounced upon the two orphans. He carried them up to his wir low and there is no knowing what would have happened if the window had been large enough for Mr. Owl and Tom Kitten and Bab Rabbit to get through all at once, but it wasn't, and Mr. Owl, thinking Tom Kitten was a the hill, and hanging in the barn they rabbit and could not get away, he sat found an old fiddle with one string him down on a limb of the tree until he could put Bab Rabbit inside. No sooner did he let go of Tom Kitten than away he went down the things," said Tom. "I'll make a hole tree and off at his best running speed. Doing Away With Exercises

"Bud Yaw, that runs the store a the crossroads, is an easy-going feller," related a citizen of Sandy Mush. "but he met his match tuther day when I was there, settin' around. Bud was stretched out on the counter, half asleep, with a bolt of callee under his head, when in came a big fat drummer that he was sorter acquainted with 'Howdy, Bud!' says the drummer, 'Dad-burn it, howdy, Jerry!' grumbled Bud. 'Say, can't you just as well come around some time when I'm standing up? 'Not necessary,' says the drummer. Twe got a little proposition in plug tobacco.
